

MEDIA ADVISORY

Catechesis Session on the Power of Solidarity Headlines a Day of Events at Mercy Centre, Thursday, July 28

The day's activities include media briefings with Cardinal Luis A. Tagle of Manila and Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore, as well as catechesis session on Christian discipleship in today's world

EVENTS: 9:00 a.m. CET – Catechesis session featuring Cardinal Tagle and Curtis Martin, founder of FOCUS, on the power of the solidarity of the Catholic youth as Christian disciples to affect change in today's secular culture. Scott and Annie Powell will join presenters to share how God invites all people to live courageously in love and to be witnesses of his love to the world. (Main stage)

12:30 p.m. CET– Media briefing with Cardinal Luis A. Tagle of Manila and Archbishop William E. Lori of Baltimore (media room)

9:30 p.m. – Final opportunity to see “Credo: I Believe in Mercy”, a musical performance by Cenacolo Community. Cenacolo is an inspiring group that provides support and care to elevate persons with addictions to a new life. (Outdoor – outside of Mercy Centre)

WHERE: Tauron Arena Kraków
Media Room/Centre - Enter Gate A4 (look for signs/volunteer)
Stanisława Lema 7
31-571 Kraków, Poland

Media can watch Mercy Centre events live from the media room.

SHUTTLE AVAILABLE: Free transport will be available to and from the Tauron Arena (Point of departure/return: WYD Media Centre, ul. Czarnowiejska 30a) CONTACT: Bill Thorn: +1-414-840-4348 for details.

Information or interview requests, please contact:

David Naglieri / David.Naglieri@kofc.org / +1-203-824- 3771

Andrew Walther/ Andrew.Walther@kofc.org / +1-203-824-5412

Tomasz Adamski / tomasz90adamski@gmail.com / +48-737-779-940

Przemysław Bednarz / pe.bednarz@gmail.com / +48-501-412-254